Jessie Chen is an active member of the BEN Running Club and has volunteered at the B.A.A. 10K, B.A.A. Half Marathon, and Boston Marathon through her running club. Her passion for running and community engagement has led her to take on a variety of community projects, volunteer her time at B.A.A. events and helped the mission of different organizations. She serves as a board member of the Lingzi Foundation, and together with Helen Zhao helped organize the annual Lingzi Dash 5K race. Recently she helped Chinese American Association of Lexington to organize the #StopAsianHate relay along the Boston Marathon route in March. Jessie has participated in the B.A.A. 5K twice, B.A.A. 10K once, and B.A.A Half Marathon once, and finished her first Boston Marathon in 2019 and the first virtual Boston Marathon in 2020.

Lindsay Devers, a nurse anesthetist at Massachusetts General Hospital, gained fame for her marathon attempt on Patriots’ Day 2020 where she inadvertently spelled “Boston Strog” when completing 26.2 miles, forgetting the ’n’! Devers’ was named to the 2020 Honorary Boston Marathon Team, and ran her 2020 for Dream Big! Her dedication and Boston Marathon spirit has inspired many.

Chris Vasquez is a member of the PIONEERS Run Crew in Boston, a group that promotes diversity in the Boston running community with weekly runs in Franklin Park and Fields Corner. Determined to stay active, Chris joined the PIONEERS Run Crew in 2019 as a way to pursue a healthier lifestyle, and has since become a team captain. Chris says, "Running the Boston Marathon would mean everything to me. To be able to run my first marathon in my city, in front of friends and family and represent PRC, the run crew that taught me about this lifestyle, would be everything."

The inaugural Patriots’ Day Mile encourages everyone to get active while also raising funds for Boston-area nonprofits whose missions focus on health and wellness. The virtual event will be held on Monday, April 19—Patriots’ Day in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the traditional date of the Boston Marathon. Whether new to the sport or an experienced runner, the Patriots’ Day Mile is for everyone to enjoy the benefits of being active on America’s most historic running date. The Patriots’ Day Mile was created in support of the B.A.A.’s goal to provide broader access to the sport of running.
